

Left
Behind
Neighbourhoods

Christina Gray, Director of Communities and Public Health, Bristol City Council

Christina works to protect and improve Bristol residents mental and physical health. With a professional background in social work and experience in supporting local groups to improvements outcomes for their neighbourhoods, she is committed to an asset-based approach.

